6 BENEFITS.

7 Section 1201 of title I of the Omnibus Crime Control
8 and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (34 U.S.C. 10281), as 9 amended by this Act, is further amended by adding at the 10 end the following:

11 “(p)(1) For the purposes of a benefit under sub-12 section (a), an eligible retired public safety officer is 13 deemed to be a public safety officer who has died as the

1 direct and proximate result of a personal injury sustained
2 in the line of duty.

3 “(2) In this section—

4 “(A) the term ‘eligible retired public safety 5 officer’ is an individual who—

6 “(i) has separated from law enforce-
7 ment service with a public agency in good
8 standing and without record of any com-
9 plaint resulting in disciplinary action;

10 “(ii) was engaged in a public or pri-
11 vate security employment obligation at the 12 time such individual was killed; and

13 “(iii) whose death was not caused by 14 an immediate relative of such individual;
15 and

16 “(B) the term ‘immediate relative’ means a
17 spouse, father, mother, guardian, brother, sis-
18 ter, son, daughter, father-in-law, mother-in-law,
19 brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daugh-
20 ter-in-law, or any other individual who could 21 make a claim under this section.”.
