Re: File No. 2022/N-0110

Dear Ms. Brame:

The State Commission on Judicial Conduct has reviewed your letter of complaint dated February 3, 2022. The Commission has asked me to advise you that it has dismissed the complaint.

Upon careful consideration, the Commission concluded that there was insufficient indication of judicial misconduct to justify judicial discipline. The Commission is not a court of law and does not have authority to review the merits of matters within a judge's discretion, such as the rulings or decision in a particular case. Judges by law have broad discretion in such matters and the law precludes the Commission from interfering in that discretion.

The Commission cannot provide legal advice or otherwise assist you with respect to the case mentioned in your letter. Only an attorney can provide such assistance and advice as to the remedies available in a court of law.

Very truly yours,

Celia A. Zahner
Clerk of the Commission
