

Submitted for the Record by Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee (7/12/2023)

Response to earlier misstatement by Republican colleague: Two of the Republican witness were each gifted a $255,000 check immediately after they testified before this Committee. While that certainly appears to be a quid pro quo, I will leave that question to the FBI and the Department of Justice. The fact that Mr. Allen has not cashed the check is certainly no defense.
