

1 (4) The Chinese Communist Party's aggression
2 is a pervasive and growing problem, as approxi-
3 mately 80 percent of all Federal economic espionage
4 prosecutions involve alleged conduct that would ben-
5 efit the Chinese Communist Party, and about 60
6 percent of all United States trade-secret theft cases
7 have a nexus to the Chinese Communist Party.

8 (5) According to the Commission on the Theft
9 of American Intellectual Property, the Chinese Com-
10 munist Party's theft of United States intellectual 11 property is estimated to cost the United States econ-
12 omy between $225,000,000,000 to 13 $600,000,000,000 annually.

14 (6) The Department of Justice has identified
15 academia as one of the sectors of the United States
16 economy that are most vulnerable to trade-secret
17 theft and economic espionage by the Chinese Com-
18 munist Party. The Chinese Communist Party ex-
19 ploits the American tradition of openness and the 20 free flow of ideas for its own benefit.

21 (7) The widespread and dangerous threats
22 posed by the Chinese Communist Party has been un-
23 derscored by the most senior-level United States
24 Government officials.

1 (8) On November 1, 2018, the former Assistant
2 Attorney for the Department of Justice’s National 3 Security Division stated, “China wants the fruits of 4 America’s brainpower to harvest the seeds of its 5 planned economic dominance. Preventing this from 6 happening will take all of us, here at the Justice De-
7 partment, across the U.S. Government, and within 8 the private sector”.

9 (9) On June 24, 2020, the former National Se-
10 curity Advisor of the White House stated that the 11 Chinese Communist Party “is seeking leverage over 12 individual Americans” and “collecting your most in-
13 timate data—your words, your actions, your pur-
14 chases, your whereabouts, your health records, your 15 social media posts, your texts, and mapping your 16 network of friends, family, and acquaintances”.

17 (10) On July 7, 2020, the Director of the Fed-18 eral Bureau of Investigation warned that “[t]he 19 greatest long-term threat to our nation’s information
20 and intellectual property, and to our economic vital-
21 ity, is the counterintelligence and economic espio-
22 nage threat from China”.

23 (11) The Director of the Federal Bureau of In-24 vestigation added that “[w]e’ve now reached the 25 point where the FBI is opening a new China-related

1 counterintelligence case about every 10 hours. Of the 2 nearly 5,000 active FBI counterintelligence cases
3 currently underway across the country, almost half
4 are related to China”.

5 (12) On July 16, 2020, the former Attorney
6 General of the Department of Justice stated that 7 “[t]he ultimate ambition of China’s rulers isn’t to 8 trade with the United States. It is to raid the 9 United States”.

10 (13) On July 23, 2020, the former Secretary of 11 the Department of State stated that “[w]e [the 12 United States] must admit a hard truth that should 13 guide us in the years and decades to come, that if 14 we want a free 21st century, and not the Chinese
15 century of which Xi Jinping dreams, the old para-
16 digm of blind engagement with China simply won’t 17 get it done. We must not continue it and we must 18 not return it”.

19 (14) Actions by the Biden administration have 20 raised serious concerns about its commitment to 21 confront the national security threats posed by the 22 Chinese Communist Party.

23 (15) In July 2021, the Biden administration’s
24 Department of Justice moved to dismiss charges

1 against several suspected Chinese researchers ac-
2 cused of concealing ties to the Chinese military.

3 (16) On February 23, 2022, the Biden adminis-
4 tration's Department of Justice announced the end
5 of its national security program aimed at prioritizing
6 and countering legitimate threats of economic espio-
7 nage, theft of American intellectual property and re-
8 search, and other threats posed by the Chinese Com-
9 munist Party to the United States.

10 (17) This action comes at a time when Presi-
11 dent Biden's leadership in only a short period has 12 resulted in many foreign policy missteps, notably in 13 Afghanistan, Russia, and Iran.

14 (18) The United States efforts to combat the 15 Chinese Communist Party's malign activities should 16 actively protect United States domestic national se-
17 curity, and address the strategic failures described 18 in this section.

13 (2) An accounting of the resources of the De-
