

WITNESS BIOGRAPHY

Robert K. Hur served as Special Counsel with the U.S. Department of Justice. In January 2023, Attorney General Merrick Garland appointed Mr. Hur to conduct the investigation of the possible unauthorized removal and retention of classified documents discovered at the Penn Biden Center for Diplomacy and Global Engagement and the Wilmington, Delaware private residence of President Joseph R. Biden, Jr.

Before his appointment, Mr. Hur was a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of an international law firm. Previously, he served as the Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General with the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, D.C. from 2017 to 2018, and as the 48th United States Attorney for the District of Maryland from 2018 to 2021. Mr. Hur also served as an Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Maryland from 2007 to 2014 and as Counsel and Special Assistant to Assistant Attorney General Christopher Wray from 2003 to 2005.

Mr. Hur served as a law clerk for William H. Rehnquist, Chief Justice of the United States, and Judge Alex Kozinski of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. He received A.B. degree from Harvard College, his J.D. from Stanford Law School, and studied philosophy at King's College, Cambridge.
