

Minnesota officials say they can't access evidence after fatal ICE shooting and FBI won't work jointly on investigation

Nation Jan 8, 2026 11:41 AM EST

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The head of Minnesota's state investigations agency says the U.S. attorney's office has cut off its access in the fatal shooting of a Minneapolis woman by an ICE agent.

WATCH: Minneapolis police chief urges 'lawful, peaceful' response to ICE shooting

"The investigation would now be led solely by the FBI, and the BCA would no longer have access to the case materials, scene evidence or investigative interviews necessary to complete a thorough and independent investigation," Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension Superintendent Drew Evans said in a statement.

It had been decided that the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension would investigate Good's shooting death along with the FBI, but that later was changed by the U.S. Attorney's office, according to Evans.

The BCA "has reluctantly withdrawn from the investigation," Evans wrote.

This is a developing story and will be updated.

A free press is a cornerstone of a healthy democracy.

Support trusted journalism and civil dialogue.

Donate now_ →

By — Associated Press