REPORT: Record-Low Crime During the Biden-Harris Administration

January 17, 2025

In 2020, the nation experienced the largest increase in murders ever recorded. President Biden and Vice President Harris immediately got to work. Guided by their belief that the first responsibility of government is to keep people safe, President Biden and Vice President Harris backed their commitment with historic investments in public safety. The end result is clear: violent crime is at a 50-year low, and homicides have fallen dramatically in the last four years to nearly a 50-year low. The White House Domestic Policy Council has issued its report on the investments and partnerships by the Biden-Harris Administration that contributed to record-low crime.
