

Diana R. Shaw
Assistant Inspector General for Special Reviews and Evaluations
Department of Homeland Security Office of Inspector General

Diana R. Shaw was appointed the DHS OIG Assistant Inspector General for Special Reviews & Evaluations in March 2019. Prior to stepping into the role, she served in several leadership positions within the OIG, including Assistant Inspector General for Legal Affairs, Acting Counsel to the Inspector General, Director of the Special Reviews Group, and Acting Assistant Inspector General for External Affairs. Before pursuing a career in government service at DHS OIG, Ms. Shaw spent nearly a decade practicing in the white collar crimes group at a top-tier law firm, where she specialized in internal investigations and compliance counseling.

Ms. Shaw earned her law degree from the University of Southern California and her undergraduate degree from Pepperdine University. She has a Master of Arts in English Literature from Oxford University. She is licensed to practice law in California and the District of Columbia.