

Sheriff Redman was born and raised in Southern California. He enlisted in the United States Air Force in 1988 and served our country for four years. Sheriff Redman was stationed in Germany for two years and was assigned to the U.S. Forces Police in Kaiserslautern, Germany prior to being Honorably Discharged.

In 1996 Sheriff Redman joined the Los Angeles Police Department and was assigned to South East Division and Central Traffic where he performed all patrol functions.

Sheriff Redman was hired as a deputy sheriff for the Amador County Sheriff's Office in 1998. Sheriff Redman had several different collateral duties as a Patrol Deputy including a Field Training Officer responsible for training and evaluating new deputies, SWAT team member and Marine Deputy. In 2001 Sheriff Redman was promoted to Sergeant and he was responsible for supervising patrol personnel, the K9 Program, and the Community Assistance Program (CAP) where he advised members of the community about Sheriff's Office operations and community safety issues.

In 2008 he was assigned as the Administrative Sergeant overseeing training for the Sheriff's Office and the Civil Bureau. As Administrative Sergeant, he served as the Sheriff's Office liaison to several community groups such as Operation Care, the Domestic Violence Counsel, the Child Abuse Counsel, the Isolated Seniors Program and others. Additionally, Sheriff Redman was also assigned as the Team Leader for the Sheriff's Office SWAT team. During his tenure as Team Leader, Sheriff Redman was responsible for the overall training and certification of SWAT team members, conducting threat assessments, dignitary protection, tactical planning and the execution of high risk operations. During this assignment Sheriff Redman established close working relationships with SWAT team leaders throughout the state, including the California Department of Justice, FBI, ATF and DEA. Sheriff Redman established, participated in and led the newly created Sheriff's Office Honor Guard Program for several years.

In 2010 Sheriff Redman was promoted to Lieutenant and assigned to the Patrol Bureau where he directly supervised the day to day operations of patrol staff, the scheduling of shift assignments, conducted and supervised Internal Affairs investigations and oversaw critical events. In 2012 Sheriff Redman was promoted to Captain and was assigned to the Corrections Division and Court Security Bureau overseeing the day to day operations of the jail and court security. Sheriff Redman was responsible for the inmate population, inmate welfare program, and jail and court security budgets.

In 2014 Sheriff Redman was assigned as the Operations Captain overseeing the Patrol, Investigations and Communications Bureaus. Sheriff Redman provided direct supervision over all high profile investigations, disciplinary investigations, and the budgets of each bureau under his command. During his tenure as the Operations Captain, Sheriff Redman was selected by the City of Sutter Creek to be their Interim Chief of Police for six months while the city searched for a permanent Chief. At the conclusion of this assignment, Sheriff Redman provided the city with a detailed assessment of the Police Department's operational and staffing needs. In 2018, Sheriff Redman was selected as the Undersheriff by Sheriff Martin Ryan (Retired). As the Sheriff's Office second in command, Sheriff Redman was responsible for ensuring that all aspects of the day to day operations of the Sheriff's Office met the high expectations of this community. He was also directly involved with managing the Sheriff's Office overall annual budget of approximately $19.5 million dollars, which was divided among 8 different departments. He served as Sheriff Ryan's liaison with community and governmental entities by establishing critical relationships with city representatives, and our state and county law enforcement partners. As the Undersheriff, he also oversaw the operation of the Amador County Combined Narcotics Task Forces.

In April, 2021, Sheriff Martin Ryan retired and the Board of Supervisors appointed Sheriff Redman as the 26th Sheriff of Amador County.

Sheriff Redman holds the basic, intermediate, advanced, supervisory and management certificates issued by the California Peace Officer Standards and Training Commission.

Sheriff Redman is a graduate of the Sherman Block Supervisory Leadership Institute and a graduate of the Federal Bureau of Investigations National Academy, class #224, held in Quantico Virginia. Sheriff Redman married his wife in 1990 while they were both stationed in Germany with the Air Force and they have two adult daughters.
