

ABBY NORTH

North Music Group LLC, Unchained Melody Publishing LLC

Abby North is a highly respected music rights manager who has made significant contributions to the music industry. She is best known as one of the founders of Unchained Melody Publishing, and the principal of North Music Group, which provides music rights, music publishing and sound recording administration services.

Abby North's company, Music Data Services, is also a significant player in the music industry. It has developed CWR and rights management tools, and provides CWR conversion services to original publishers worldwide.

Abby's expertise in music rights management and metadata analytics has made her a sought-after speaker and consultant in the music industry.

Abby has been actively involved in various songwriter and artist advocacy initiatives. She is on SONA's Advisory Board, is a member of Board of the Los Angeles chapter of the AIMP and is Vice Chair of IAFAR. Abby is the publisher lead of the CISAC SPF CWR Working Group, is a member of the ISNI Music Consultation Group, and a member of ICMP's Metadata Working Group.

In 2022, AIMP Los Angeles named North Music Group Independent Music Publisher of the Year. Abby's dedication, hard work and expertise have made her one of the most influential figures in music rights management and independent music publishing.
