

Question for the Record from Representative Issa to Mr. Travis

“Examining the Sports Broadcasting Act”

June 10, 2026

---

1. I’m concerned that watching football is becoming too complicated and too expensive. Fans shouldn’t have to jump between multiple streaming services just to follow the sport they love. Do you think that the current broadcast models for the leagues are designed to serve the fans?