

Gretta L. Goodwin, Ph.D.
Director, Homeland Security and Justice
U.S. Government Accountability Office
Washington DC

Gretta L. Goodwin is a Director in the Homeland Security and Justice team at the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO), where she leads GAO's work on justice and law enforcement issues. The portfolio includes: the federal prison system, federal law enforcement oversight and training, civil liberties/civil rights, vulnerable populations, and the federal judiciary. She has directed reviews on BOP's response to the COVID19 pandemic, BOP staffing, the care of pregnant women in DOJ custody and DHS facilities, law enforcement's use of force, law enforcement's use of facial recognition technology, federal criminal restitution, and human trafficking. During her 20+ year career at GAO, she has also worked on issues related to Social Security reform, disability, worker protection, and K-12 and higher education. Ms. Goodwin has a Ph.D. and a master's degree in economics from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, and a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Houston.