

LARRY ELDER

BIOGRAPHY

Executive producer of the 2020 documentary, “Uncle Tom: An Oral History of the Black Conservative,” Larry is the recipient of a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. He hosts a daily nationally syndicated daily show for Salem Radio Networks and produces YouTube videos in partnership with the Epoch Times.

His books include the best-selling books, The 10 Things You Can’t Say in America, and Showdown: Confronting Bias, Lies and the Special Interests That Divide America.” His latest book, Dear Father, Dear Son: Two Lives, Eight Hours, is a personal story of about his dad, who grew up fatherless in the Jim Crow South on the eve of the Great Depression, and was kicked out of his house at 13 years old.

Larry also writes a nationally syndicated newspaper column distributed through Creators Syndicate. He also hosted two nationally syndicated television shows “Moral Court” and “The Larry Elder Show.”

He has a B.A in Political Science from Brown University, 1974; and a law degree from University of Michigan School of Law, 1977