

Mr. John Shu, Esq.

Short Bio

John Shu is an attorney and legal commentator. His focus areas include constitutional law, administrative law, antitrust law, securities & corporate law, politics, international affairs, the U.S. Supreme Court, and confirmations. Mr. Shu has lectured and published on these and many other issues. Mr. Shu served President George H.W. Bush and President George W. Bush. He also served Judge Stanley Sporkin, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, who was Director of Enforcement at the Securities & Exchange Commission and General Counsel at the Central Intelligence Agency; and Judge Paul Roney, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, who also was Presiding Judge of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court of Review. Mr. Shu also served as Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of the National Association of Administrative Law Judiciary. He is a former Term Member of the Council on Foreign Relations, and is a member of the National Committee on U.S. - China Relations, the Pacific Council on International Policy, and the Foreign Policy Association. He received his B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania, G.C. from Peking University, and J.D. from Pepperdine University School of Law.