

Zephranie Buetow, Assistant Secretary of Legislative Affairs, DHS

Zephranie Buetow is the Assistant Secretary for Legislative Affairs at the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS). The Assistant Secretary for Legislative Affairs reports to the Secretary of DHS. The Office of Legislative Affairs is responsible for providing Members of Congress and congressional staff with timely and accurate information about Department initiatives, policies, and programs, and for coordinating legislative functions with the Department's components and headquarters offices.

Prior to joining the Department in February 2023, Ms. Buetow served as Special Assistant to the President and Senate Legislative Affairs Liaison in the White House Office of Legislative Affairs. She began her career in public service as an Information Management Specialist with the Illinois National Guard. After law school, she held various positions in the United States Senate, ultimately serving as a Legislative Director for Sen. Gary Peters.
