

Lynnel Ruckert

Lynnel is a partner at Bold Strategies which provides government relations and political consulting services to political campaigns, nonprofit groups, and private-sector companies.

In 2001, Lynnel arrived in Washington DC to answer phones for the Energy and Commerce Committee. She departed in 2016 as the highest ranking House female staffer on Capitol Hill. She served as Majority Whip Steve Scalise's chief of staff for eight years.

Since returning to Louisiana, she has served as Chief of Staff to Attorney General Jeff Landry, Assistant Treasurer and graduated from the Baton Rouge Chamber Leadership program.

As a native of Jefferson Parish, graduate of University of Louisiana Monroe and former lifeguard at Camp Hardtner in Grant Parish she finds charm in every corner of Louisiana.

When she is not cheering on her children Jack and Mary Kyle at sporting events, Lynnel enjoys playing tennis and reading. She is an active member of St. Aloysius Church and serves on the Old State Capitol Foundation Board of Directors.
