

Gerard J. Coyle

Vice President, Environmental and Sustainable Operations

Evans Delivery Company, Inc. is a, Pennsylvania based, national provider of trucking and transportation services with annual revenues in excess of $335 million. The company currently operates approximately 2,000 trucks and transports more than 500,000 intermodal containers, from the Nation's ports and rail facilities, per year.

Mr. Coyle has been employed in senior level management positions, in the Transportation Industry, for more than thirty years. He joined Evans Delivery Company in 2001. In his capacity as Vice President – Environmental and Sustainable Operations he is the company's representative with national and regional trade and environmental organizations as well as Federal and State regulatory and legislative matters. Prior to working with Evans, Mr. Coyle held management positions including; President and CEO of TransMax, Inc., Philadelphia, PA, Vice President Marketing and Administration, Trans Freight Systems, Philadelphia, PA and Vice President Sales and Marketing, Scout Trucking, Inc. Spring City, PA and Vice President, Matlack, Inc.

Currently, he is a member of the Board of Directors of The New Jersey Motor Truck Association and The Coalition for Responsible Transportation.

In addition, Mr. Coyle is the company's representative with the following organizations. U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Clean Air Act Advisory Committee, Mobile Sources Technical Review Committee, Smart-Way Work Group Subcommittee, Port Authority of New York/ New Jersey - Truck Working Group, Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission's Freight Movement Task Force, Philadelphia Air Quality Roundtable at the Center for Environmental Policy, Intermodal Association of North America, Retail Industry Leaders Association, The Environmental Defense Fund, The Waterfront Coalition and Transportation Intermediaries Association

He is the co-founder of two Non-Profit 501(c)(3) environmental organizations, The Middletown Township Land Conservancy and the Shortwood Wildlife Association.

Mr. Coyle holds a Bachelor of Science (BS) in Business Management from St. Joseph's University and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) in Finance and Law, from Drexel University.