

Alan Winders is the Presiding Commissioner of Audrain County, Missouri. His first term on the Commission began in 2017. Prior to that, Winders worked in local government as a city manager. His career in local government began in 1984 as an intern at the Northeast Regional Planning Commission. His professional career has been dedicated to service in local government.

Winders earned his degree in Political Science from what is now Truman University in Kirksville, Missouri.

Alan Winders grew up on a small farm in Audrain County. His family still lives, farms and raises cattle there.