

Lori Johnson is the Assistant Chief of the Financial Assistance Division for the Oklahoma Water Resources Board. She has served the Board for 17 years in different capacities. In her current position, she assists in the oversight of the Board's water and wastewater loan and grant programs, including the Clean Water State Revolving Fund and implementation of a new grant program funded by the American Rescue Plan. Lori serves as Secretary on CIFA's Board of Directors.