

Diana Marina Cooper

Ms. Cooper is the Senior Vice President of Policy and Strategy at PrecisionHawk. She is an aviation policy executive and industry thought leader with extensive cross-functional experience, including in emerging legal and policy frameworks, government relations, regulatory compliance, strategic partnerships and go-to-market strategies.

At PrecisionHawk, Diana leads international, federal, state and local regulatory matters. She develops and implements policy and regulatory strategies and forges partnerships with industry groups, commercial partners, and regulators. Ms. Cooper represents the company before the FAA, DOT, NASA, DHS, OSTP, NTIA, Congress and foreign regulatory bodies. Diana also previously served as the company's general counsel from 2015 to 2017, and prior to joining PrecisionHawk in 2015, she developed and led the first UAS and Robotics Practice Group at a Canadian law firm.

Diana is President of the Small UAV Coalition, and she also serves on the Advisory Board of the Energy Drone Coalition, the Advocacy Committee of AUVSI, the Drone Alliance Europe Board, the Aerospace Industries Association Board of Governors, the United Nations Working Group on Legal and Policy Frameworks for Geospatial Information Management, and the World Economic Forum Drone Innovators Network.

Diana served on the FAA Drone Advisory Subcommittee, the FAA Remote Identification and Tracking Aviation Rulemaking Committee, and the NTIA Multi-stakeholder Process on UAS Privacy. Ms. Cooper has testified before the Senate Commerce Committee in 2017 and has briefed the House UAS Caucus on issues affecting the UAS industry. Diana holds a BA in Politics and Governance, a MA in Globalization Studies and a JD in Law and Technology.
