

Roei Ganzarski

Roei is CEO of magniX, an electric aviation propulsion company. With a vision of connecting communities with low-cost, clean air transportation, magniX is disrupting aviation as we know it.

He is also executive chairman of Eviation, the electric aircraft OEM bringing a newly designed all-electric aircraft to market.

Prior to magniX, Roei was CEO of BoldIQ - a provider of dynamic real-time scheduling optimization software. Under his leadership, BoldIQ grew from seed software startup to multi-million-dollar profitable SaaS company.

Before BoldIQ, Roei was with the Boeing family of companies in continuously increasing roles of responsibility. His last role was Chief Customer Officer for Boeing's Flight Services division where he led worldwide customer and market facing organizations and was responsible for revenue growth and customer service.

Other experiences prior to Boeing include investment banking, corporate finance, advertising, and the military.

Roei serves as chair of the Electric Propulsion and Innovation Committee (EPIC) at the General Aviation Manufacturers Association (GAMA) and is a member of their executive committee.

He is a graduate of Wharton's Advanced Management Program, earned an MBA from the University of Washington, and a BA in Economics from The University of Haifa.

Roei lives with his family in Redmond, Washington, USA.
