

Tyler Painter

Chief Financial Officer

As Chief Financial Officer, Tyler leads Wisk's finance, accounting, corporate development, and information technology, and is responsible for overseeing the company's financial planning and objectives. Tyler brings a strong history of commercializing new technologies and new business models and has extensive financial and operational management experience across private, public and Fortune 500 companies. He has held multiple leadership positions including CFO of Surf Air Mobility, CFO of Fair Financial Corp, CFO and COO of Solazyme, and Corporate Treasurer and VP of Finance for Wind River Systems. Tyler holds a BS in finance from California Polytechnic University, San Luis Obispo.

