

Gregory Pecoraro, President and CEO, National Association of State Aviation Officials (NASAO)

Greg Pecoraro joined NASAO in early 2020 as the organization's President and CEO and is excited to serve one of the oldest and most consequential aviation organizations in the nation. Greg brought to NASAO more than 25 years of policy and executive experience in the aviation and transportation sectors, both in government and associations. He served as Vice President of Government Affairs for the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association, as Assistant Secretary at Maryland Department of Transportation, as a U.S. Senate staff member, as well as in other leadership positions in the public and private sectors. In these roles, he has worked extensively across the aviation community with policymakers at every level of government, and with other association leaders.

As President and CEO of NASAO, he serves on the Oversight Committee of the Transportation Research Board's Airports Cooperative Research Program, the Board of the Alliance for Aviation Across America, and the Executive Committee of the EAGLE Initiative. In 2025, he was appointed by Governor Wes Moore to serve on Maryland's Advanced Air Mobility Council.

Greg has also been active in a variety of civic and community activities, including service on the City Council in Westminster, Maryland; as a Trustee of the YMCA Youth Foundation of the Central Atlantic Area; and as a member of the Friends Advisory Committee of the Johns Hopkins University Sheridan Libraries.
