

Michael J. Robinson
Vice President, Sustainability and Global Regulatory Affairs
General Motors Company

Mike Robinson is the Vice President of Sustainability and Global Regulatory Affairs for General Motors. He leads initiatives to further integrate sustainability into GM's operations and products, and has responsibility for GM's sustainability reporting initiatives. Robinson also provides leadership in GM's global environment, energy, and vehicle safety policy activities, including advocacy efforts with governments and key stakeholders.

Robinson was hired by General Motors Corporation in 1984, when he joined the company upon his graduation from Villanova Law School. He also holds a B.A. in Political Science from the College of the Holy Cross in Massachusetts, as well as an M.A. in Political Science and International Relations from Oklahoma State University. In addition, Robinson was an officer in the U.S. Air Force from 1977 to 1981.