

Thomas R. Fuller

Technical Sergeant, New York State Police

Program Administrator of the Commercial Vehicle Enforcement Unit

President, Commercial Vehicle Safety Alliance (CVSA)

Thomas R. Fuller has been employed by the New York State Police for the last 27 years and is currently assigned to the Commercial Vehicle Enforcement Unit. He has dedicated his last 16 years of his career to commercial vehicle safety. Sgt Fuller maintains his inspector certification and teaches as an associate staff instructor for several federal agencies.

Sgt Fuller started in the unit as a road Trooper and inspector and was promoted through the ranks to his current position. Currently, as Administrator of the Commercial Vehicle Enforcement Unit (CVEU), he oversees the activities of 100 full time members and 105 part time members enforcing the Federal Regulations. His duties include the management of the state financial resources as well as the federal grant funds to operate and enhance commercial vehicle safety in New York State.

Sgt Fuller represents the Division of State Police in all contacts with the U.S. Department of Transportation, the U.S. Department of Energy, and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security in all matters of transportation.
