

Representative Andrew J. McLean

Representing: Gorham (part) and Scarborough (part)

District #27

Rep. Andrew McLean is serving his fourth term in the Maine House of Representatives. He works at the University of Southern Maine as a student affairs administrator and is committed to growing Maine's economy through smart investments in education, workforce development and infrastructure improvements.

McLean earned a master's degree in public policy from the Muskie School of Public Service and was appointed in 2009 by Gov. John Baldacci to the Maine Commission for Community Service, a position he held until elected to the legislature in 2012. He is a trustee of the Baxter Memorial Library in Gorham.

McLean lives in Gorham with his husband, Kyle.
