

Background Information

David B. Kutrosky
Managing Director
Capitol Corridor Joint Powers Authority

David has over twenty-five (25) years of extensive multi-modal transportation engineering, planning, and financing experience. He is currently the Managing Director for California's Capitol Corridor Joint Powers Authority (CCJPA), the agency responsible for the management of the Amtrak-operated intercity passenger rail service between San Jose – Oakland/San Francisco – Sacramento/Auburn. David oversees a dedicated management team whose specific duties include operations and strategic planning, capital programming, customer service, budget and contract administration, public and legislative affairs, and marketing. He also serves as Chair of the American Public Transportation Association (APTA) High Speed Intercity Passenger Rail Committee, as the Chair of PRIIA Section 209 State Working Group for Amtrak Intercity Corridor Pricing Policy, and as Facilitator for the Northern California High Speed Rail Service Integration Working Group.

Prior to his current duties, David was Deputy Director for the CCJPA for over 5 years. He started his public transit career in the Planning Department at BART and oversaw BART's planning efforts to develop a regional passenger railroad service, which led to BART's role as managing agency to the CCJPA. He started his career as a consultant in traffic engineering, transit operations planning, and airport planning and design.

He has a bachelor's degree from University of California, Los Angeles and a master's degree from University of California, Berkeley.
