

Andrew W. Sandberg
International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers
Assistant to The President and Directing General Chairman District Lodge 19

Andrew Sandberg, a native of Long Island New York joined the IAM in May of 2005 as a Railroad Machinist with Long Island Rail Road. Having a union background passed down from his Father and Grandfather as well as his previous UAW job he entered a race less than two years later to become Chairman of his 300 Member Local and won. As a Local representative he set out to improve his Members work experience at every chance he had. Within four years of this time Andrew was elected to become a District 19 General Chairman and moved to East Tennessee. Now representing IAM Members at various Railroads within the eastern half of the United States. In June of 2017 Andrew Graduated with a bachelor's degree in labor studies from SUNY Empire State College. Shortly thereafter he was appointed as District 19 Educator and Assistant to The President and Directing General Chairman. Andrew is a seasoned trade unionist that focuses on Labor Unity to deliver the best quality of life for our collective Membership.