

BIO FOR WALLER COUNTY JUDGE TREY DUHON

Originally from Sugar Land, Texas, Judge Duhon graduated from Texas A&M in 1992 and the University of Houston Law Center in 1995. He currently operates his own law practice in Waller. Judge Duhon was recognized in 2011 as a "Star of Texas" by Texans Uniting for Reform and Freedom (TURF) for protecting private property rights and in 2012 he was recognized as "Citizen & Volunteer of the Year" by the Waller Area Chamber of Commerce for his efforts during the 2011 Tri-County wildfires.

In addition to his duties as County Judge, he serves as President of the Waller County Sub-Regional Planning Commission, and is on the Board of Directors of the Houston Galveston Area Council, and is Chairman of HGAC's Plans and Projects Review Committee and Texas Association of Counties' Legislative Committee. He is also a board member of the Waller County Juvenile Board, the Gulf Coast Rail District, and Texans Against High Speed Rail. He was also recognized as a Fellow of the Texas Judicial Academy in 2017, 2018 and 2019.

He and his wife Lisa love spending time with their five grandchildren, with a sixth one expected in November.
