

Danielle M. Eckert

INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS (IBEW), AFL-CIO

Danielle Eckert is an International Representative from the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW), a union representing more than 775,000 active and retired members. She was born in Homosassa, FL, and raised in North Tonawanda, NY, and Altoona, PA. She is a seven-year member of IBEW Local 2273 where she began her career as an apprentice electrician in a Class I freight locomotive heavy repair shop. She served on her local union's executive board before coming to the IBEW's headquarters as a representative in the Political & Legislative Affairs Department.

She is a graduate of Mount Aloysius College in Cresson, PA with a Bachelor of History/Political Science Secondary Education in 2012 and obtained a Master's in Management and Leadership from Liberty University, Lynchburg, VA in 2017.

She served in the United States Army Reserve as a Chemical, Biological, Radiological, Nuclear specialist and Small Arms and Towed Artillery repairer from 2007 to 2020 and was discharged honorably, obtaining the rank of Staff Sergeant.