

Dillon Olvera serves as President and Chief Executive Office of Modesto and Empire Traction Company (the "MET"). Mr. Olvera has served in this role since 2016, and prior to his service in this role, he held various senior executive finance and operational roles for over twenty years. The MET is a family owned short line railroad in Modesto, California that has been in business for over 100 years. Mr. Olvera currently serves on the board of several community-based organizations, including Opportunity Stanislaus, Stanislaus Community Foundation, and the Manufacturers Council of the Central Valley. Mr. Olvera holds a B.A. in Business Economics from the University of California, Santa Barbara and is a Certified Public Accountant in California.