

Kristin Bevil
General Counsel & Chief Legal Officer
Pinsly Railroad Company

Kristin Bevil, General Counsel & Chief Legal Officer of Pinsly Railroad Company (Pinsly), is an experienced rail professional who has spent her career advising rail clients in all aspects of the business. Pinsly is a short line railroad holding company that owns eight short line railroads across the United States. Bevil began her rail career in Chicago with Fletcher & Sippel, LLC, advising Class I, regional and short line rail clients. In 2014, she joined The Indiana Rail Road Company as its first General Counsel, advising on legal matters involving litigation, governance, regulatory compliance, labor relations, and commercial transactions. In 2019, Bevil joined the executive team of Pioneer Lines as General Counsel managing fifteen short line railroads from time of acquisition through divestiture in 2022. Bevil currently serves as the Vice President, Central Region, of the Association of Short Line and Regional Railroads (ASLRRA) Board of Directors and a member of the Executive Committee of the ASLRRA. She is also a member of the Board of Directors for the Short Line Safety Institute (SLSI), a non-profit dedicated to the continuous improvement of safety and safety culture in the short line and regional railroad industry. Throughout her career Bevil has also been involved with Operation Lifesaver, a non-profit dedicated to rail safety, as Vice Chair of the Indiana Operation Lifesaver Board of Directors and as an Operation Lifesaver Authorized Volunteer. In 2024, Bevil was recognized as a Railway Age 2024 Woman in Rail honoree. The award recognizes women who excel in leadership, service to the community, and driving industry change. She received a Bachelor degree in Journalism from the University of Missouri and her Law Degree from the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law.
