

TRENDING NOW IN US NEWS

Alleged psycho surgeon would 'torment' ex: 'She had...

'Terrified' stranger rescues pair of toddlers who wandered onto...

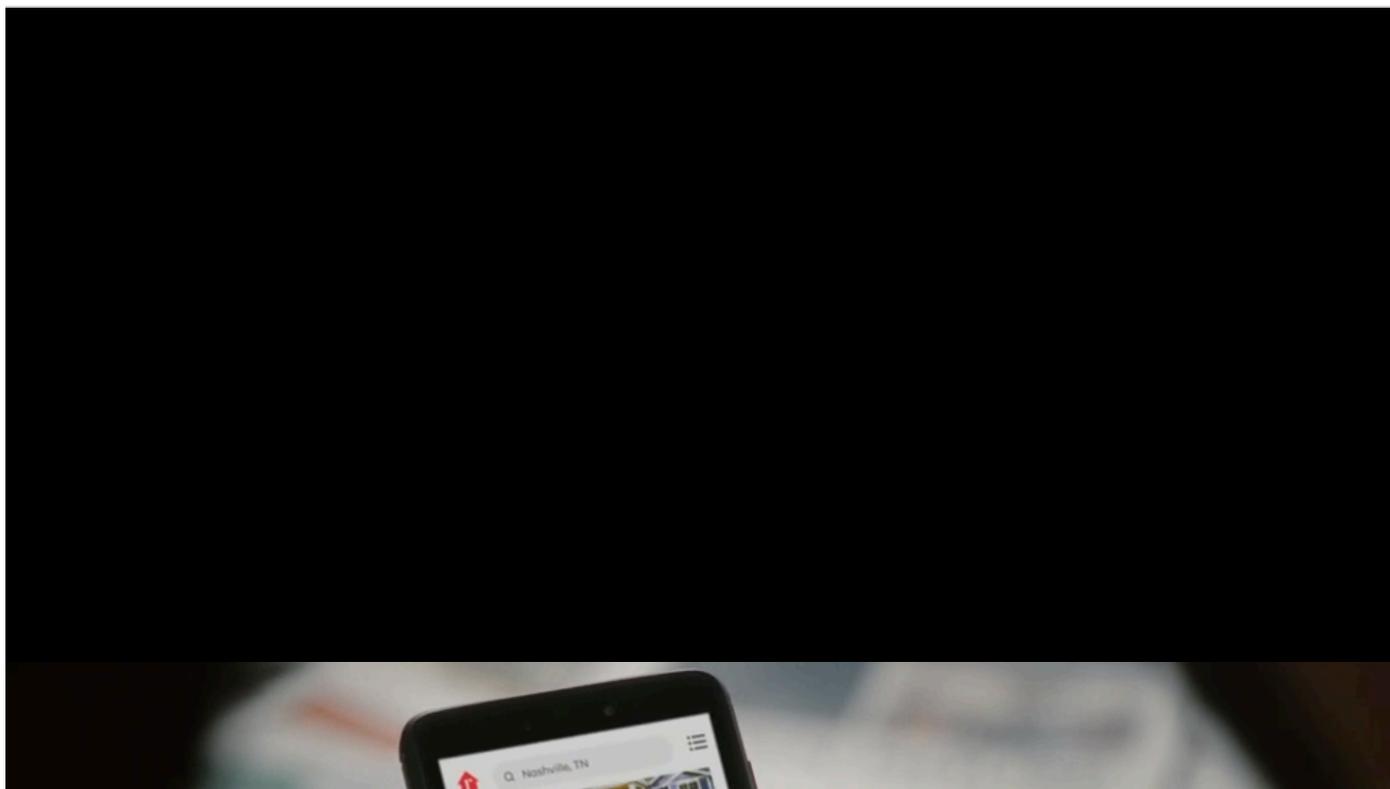

Pass open door

Jan. 6 security failures in newly released video: 'I take full responsibility'

By Emily Crane

Published Aug. 28, 2024, 3:59 p.m. ET

228

Former House Speaker Nancy Pelosi repeatedly admitted she should have done more to protect the US Capitol from the January 6 rioters that former President Donald Trump unleashed to overthrow the election, newly released footage shows.

Pelosi also lashed out at the idea that anyone expected MAGA fans to “act civilized,” according to the video taken as she was whisked away from the Capitol as the angry mob began infiltrating the congressional building.

“We have totally failed. We have to take some responsibility for not holding the security accountable for what could have happened,” the California Democrat raged at one point.

New documentary footage shows then-Speaker Nancy Pelosi blaming herself for not doing more to secure the Capitol during the riot on Jan. 6, 2021.

CNN

“Oh my god, I cannot believe the stupidity of this. And I take the full responsibility.”