

TIM JOHNSON BIO

Timothy Johnson has been the Chief Executive Officer and General Counsel of Otsego Electric Cooperative and the OEConnect fiber subsidiary since May 2016. Prior to that, Tim was a lawyer in private practice for 27 years from 1985 to 2012 with offices in Edmeston, Morris, and Cooperstown. During this time, Tim represented Otsego Electric Cooperative and 2 other rural electric cooperatives here in NY and numerous other nonprofits, charities and municipalities. He left private practice in 2012 to become Assistant General Counsel at the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association in Arlington, Virginia.

Tim studied at the University of Rochester in Rochester, NY where he received Bachelor's and Master's degrees. He obtained a law degree at Albany Law School of Union University. Tim is married, has three children, and resides in Edmeston.