

R.L. Condra
Bio

R.L. Condra is the Vice President of Advocacy and Government Programs for the National Cooperative Bank (NCB), a national financial institution dedicated to providing banking solutions to cooperatives, and their members headquartered in Washington, DC. In this capacity, he is responsible for advocating for issues that directly impact NCB's customer segments and the cooperative business sector.

Mr. Condra serves on the board, and as the advocacy chair for CooperationWorks, a national network of organizations focused on co-op development. Prior to joining NCB, Mr. Condra was Vice President of Advocacy for the National Cooperative Business Association.

Mr. Condra served as Professional Staff on the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Forestry and Nutrition for Chairwoman Blanche Lincoln, the first woman and Arkansan to serve as Chair of the Committee.

For seven years, Mr. Condra worked for two presidential appointees with the George W. Bush Administration as Director of Congressional Affairs for the Delta Regional Authority.

Mr. Condra earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture Business from the University of Arkansas.