

Collin Castore is co-founder of Seventh Son Brewing which was opened in April of 2013 and Antiques on High which opened in November of 2018. Throughout his life Collin has worked most every imaginable position in various Columbus restaurants and bars where he developed his passion for American craft beer. Collin studied English at the Ohio State University and is currently focused on making Seventh Son Brewing and Antiques on High long term sustainable and successful businesses. Collin loves Ohio craft beer and feels extremely appreciative and humbled to have served for the past 6 years as president of the Ohio Craft Brewers Association and is grateful for the opportunity to testify to this committee.