

Daniel Fitzgerald works for Southwestern Community College as the Acting Regional for the San Diego – Imperial SBDC Regional Network. He also oversees the San Diego & Imperial Women’s Business Center and is the fiscal agent for the California Women’s Business Center Network. For over 20 years, Danny has been a prominent fixture in the small business communities of San Diego County and Imperial County. His service in a wide variety of leadership and executive roles has made a significant impact on thousands of businesses and multiple industries throughout the State of California.