

R.L. Condra
Senior Vice President of Government Relations
National Cooperative Bank

Mr. Condra is the Senior Vice President of Government Relations for the National Cooperative Bank (NCB) in Arlington, Virginia. In this capacity, he oversees the Bank's legislative strategy while supporting efforts to serve cooperative businesses and low-to-moderate income communities.

Since joining NCB, he has advocated for cooperatives to have access to SBA lending programs and the USDA Rural Cooperative Development Grant program. Mr. Condra serves as the advocacy chair for Cooperation Works, a national network of organizations and individuals working on co-op development and on the Inter-agency working group for cooperatives.

Prior to joining NCB, Mr. Condra was Vice President of Advocacy for the National Cooperative Business Association and spent several years on Capitol Hill as Professional Staff on the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Forestry and Nutrition and as Director of Congressional Affairs for the Delta Regional Authority.

Mr. Condra earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture Marketing from the University of Arkansas.
