

Alice P. Frazier - Biography

Alice P. Frazier is President and CEO of Potomac Bancshares, Inc. (OTC: PTBS) and BCT-Bank of Charles Town, also known as The Community's Bank. Ms. Frazier has over 30 years of local banking experience, including service with Cardinal Financial Corporation as Executive Vice President and COO, BB&T as SVP/Area Executive in Loudoun County, and Middleburg Financial Corporation as CFO and COO, which is where Frazier began her banking career. Prior to that, she worked four years in public accounting with national and regional firms.

An avid community supporter, Ms. Frazier currently serves in several leadership capacities including Independent Community Bankers of America as Chair of Bank Operations Committee and Board of Directors and the the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond Board of Directors. Further, as a Director on the Loudoun County (Virginia) Economic Development Authority, Loudoun County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, the West Virginia University-East Hospital Board of Directors, Ms. Frazier is also a past Chairman of the Virginia Association of Community Banks.

Ms. Frazier is a graduate of the Stonier Graduate School of Banking and Radford University. She has been a resident of Leesburg, Virginia for over 19 years.

Revised: 2023-01-24