

Biography
Ric Suzio
Suzio York Hill Companies
October 17, 2023

With over 32 years dedicated to his family's legacy, Ric currently serves as the Vice President of the esteemed Suzio York Hill Companies. His commitment stretches beyond business operations. Ric's commendable community involvement is highlighted by his roles, such as Chairman of the Board of the Boys and Girls Club of Meriden and significant contributions to the Meriden Historical Society and the Meriden Economic Development Board.

Founded in 1898 by Leonardo Suzio, an Italian immigrant, The L. Suzio Construction Co. has evolved from its foundational projects, like the Polish Falcon Hall in Meriden, to a diversified portfolio encompassing road building and materials supply. This evolution showcases the company's resilience and innovative spirit, traits emblematic of successful small businesses. Today, under Ric's guidance, Suzio York Hill not only celebrates its rich heritage but exemplifies the essence of a small business: driving local economies, fostering innovation, and placing paramount importance on community ties and sustainability. Through Ric's leadership and the company's enduring ethos, they encapsulate the power and potential of small businesses in shaping community landscapes.
