

INDIANA SECRETARY OF STATE DIEGO MORALES BIO

Diego Morales is Indiana's 63rd Secretary of State. Secretary Morales is the first Latino elected to a statewide office in the history of Indiana. He is currently the only legal immigrant elected to serve as a Secretary of State in the country.

This year he visited all 92 Indiana counties within 3 months, which was a record pace for a statewide office holder.

Secretary Morales previously worked in state government as an aide to Vice President Mike Pence during his tenure as Governor of Indiana. Secretary Morales brings extensive experience in both the public and private sectors. Prior to taking office, he was a proud small business owner.

Secretary Morales grew up in Sellersburg and went to Silver Creek High School in Clark County. Later earning degrees from Indiana University, an MBA Purdue University, an International MBA from Tilburg University in the Netherlands, and he's also studied in several other countries all around the world. Secretary Morales also proudly volunteered and served in the United States Army and National Guard with a Green Card in his wallet. He's been the recipient of numerous honors in recognition of his public service including the Kentucky Colonel and the Sagamore of Wabash.