

Mike Gibson

Biographical Information

Mike Gibson is the Executive Vice President of Associated General Contractors of Kansas (AGC). AGC of Kansas is recognized as the "Chamber of Commerce for the Construction Industry in Kansas" AGC of Kansas represents over 300 Kansas construction general contractors, subcontractors and professional service firms and their 20,000 employees and is headquartered in Wichita, with its Legislative Affairs office in Topeka.

Prior to leading AGC of Kansas, Mike Gibson represented and developed the large workforce development programs for Associated General Contractors (AGC) in New Mexico (transportation material certification programs), Associated General Contractors (AGC) in Louisiana (commercial apprenticeship programs) and Associated Builders & Contractors (ABC) in Houston Texas (petrochemical task training programs). In addition, Mike has served on the Board of Directors for the National Center for Construction Education & Research (NCCER) and currently serves on the NCCER National Workforce Development Committee. NCCER provides national standardized construction craft training certification for both the younger generation and the existing workforce.

Mike attended Texas Tech University (Lubbock, Texas), where he received a B.S. in Business Management and serves on a wide range of economic development, workforce development and chamber groups on a local, state and national level.

Mike resides in Andover, Kansas and is married to his wife, Rachal and has two kids, Nicole (who is a 2016 graduate from Kansas State University) and Zach who recently graduated on a golf scholarship at Tabor College Hillsboro Kansas.