

Adrian Adornetto is the Owner of Adornetto's and Giacomo's in Zanesville OH. He is a 2nd generation restaurant operator; his father, Jimmy (Giacomo) Adornetto, started their family restaurant in 1958 with the help of his parents, who immigrated from Sicily. In over 65 years of doing business, the Adornetto family has consistently excelled in their goal of serving the same quality Italian food, made the old-fashioned way.

Adrian is a proud advocate for the restaurant community, both in his home state of Ohio and nationally. He is the immediate past chair of the Ohio Restaurant and Hospitality Alliance and is involved in advocacy initiatives through the National Restaurant Association.
