

Associate Administrator Paul Fitzpatrick

Paul Fitzpatrick serves as Associate Administrator for the Office of Entrepreneurial Development at the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). In this role, he oversees SBA's nationwide public-private partnership network, delivering training and counseling services to small businesses through key programs including Small Business Development Centers, Women's Business Centers, and SCORE. He is focused on safeguarding taxpayer funds while expanding access to services for eligible small businesses in local communities across the country.

Prior to his appointment, Paul served as the founding president of a national nonprofit that advances free enterprise and protects small businesses. He also served as deputy chief of staff in the U.S. Senate and chief of staff in the U.S. House of Representatives. In these roles, he regularly met with entrepreneurs and small businesses to elevate their concerns and develop solutions.

Paul has held additional leadership roles in the nonprofit sector and began his career in the private sector. He holds a Bachelor of Arts from Trinity College in Connecticut and a Master of Business Administration from Marymount University in Virginia.

---