

Bruce H. Strong

State Director, Minnesota Small Business Development Center

Bruce Strong is State Director for the Minnesota Small Business Development Center (SBDC) Network. The SBDC is recognized as the state's pre-eminent, nationally accredited provider of professional business technical assistance whose mission is to help entrepreneurs start and grow businesses that succeed. He has extensive experience in community and economic development and in the mortgage lending and banking industries. He is an Air Force veteran and graduated summa cum laude from National College with a degree in Business Administration and Marketing.