

Tim Donovan
SVP, Legislative Affairs
Competitive Carriers Association

Tim Donovan is SVP of Legislative Affairs for Competitive Carriers Association (CCA), the leading association representing competitive wireless telecommunications providers. In this capacity, he coordinates the association's legislative advocacy before policymakers on issues impacting competitive carriers, including broadband deployment, universal service, access to spectrum, devices, wireless competition, and other issues.

Prior to joining CCA, Donovan served as Manager of Government Affairs for the Direct Marketing Association, where his primary responsibility was supporting the advocacy goals of the direct marketing community.

Donovan holds a bachelor's degree from Providence College, where he studied English and Political Science.
