

Brent Lillard

CEO GovSmart, Inc.

Brent Lillard is the founder and CEO of GovSmart Inc., which was established in December of 2009, in Charlottesville, Virginia. As a Value-Added Reseller for technology products, GovSmart has grown from 2 home-based employees to a team of 72, and annual sales topping $267M in 2021. GovSmart was named as the 2017 HUBZone of the year by the Department of Energy (DOE).

Brent was born and raised in Madison, VA, and graduated from George Mason University in 2006, earning his Bachelor's Degree in Integrative Studies with Internet and Multimedia Focus. Brent was recently named to the 2018 AFCEA 40 under 40 for his contributions to technical Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM). He is a Black Belt in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, and owns and instructs at his training center, Gracie Charlottesville. Brent lives in Keswick, VA, with his wife, Jessica, and their two sons, Locklan (3yo) and Decklan (15 months).