

Venezuelan-born American Construction Entrepreneur Ines Rivas-Hutchins is one of the most successful women in construction in Western Kentucky.

Rivas-Hutchins founded INTEC Group with the goal to apply the leadership and project management skills that she had honed throughout her construction career instilled by many of her mentors. INTEC is an Economically Disadvantaged Woman Owned Small Business (EDWOSB) and SBA certified Hubzone and 8(a) program participant firm in the State of Kentucky, that specializes in all aspects of general construction. INTEC Group has a successful history of providing quality products and services to the Federal Government, including the U.S. Department of the Army, and the United States Army Corps of Engineers. INTEC Group currently holds a 5-year $175 million capacity Multiple Award Indefinite Delivery Indefinite Quantity (MAIDIQ) contract at Fort Campbell, a 3-year $49 million WOSB MATOC with the US Army Corps of Engineers, Louisville District, and a 3-year $49 million HUBZone MATOC also with the USACE Louisville District.
