

Mark E. Glenn

Biography

Mark Glenn has been a part of the Dallas and Carrollton, TX business community for more than 25 years. For 14 years Mark was an employee of his now franchisor FASTSIGNS International Incorporated (FII) headquartered in Carrollton. Mark held director positions in the operations department and the latest was the Director of Compliance in the legal department. In 2011 Mark resigned from his position with FASTSIGNS International and purchased the existing FASTSIGNS franchise located on East Belt Line Road in Carrollton. With much success and growth of the first franchise location, in 2015 Mark and his wife Shawn bought three additional FASTSIGNS centers in Dallas.

Since the expansion with the additional locations Mark and Shawn were awarded the FASTSIGNS Award in 2018. The FASTSIGNS Award is the most prestigious recognition in the FASTSIGNS network. This award is presented to the franchisees who best represent the FASTSIGNS brand, their community, the network, provide exceptional customer service, mentoring, company culture and employee development. Mark is also a member of the FASTSIGNS Franchise Advisory Council.

Prior to Mark's career with FASTSIGNS he held management positions with Wal-Mart Stores Inc. Mark was the District Manager for the stores in Northeast Texas and was the Director of Store Planning based in Toronto, ON during Wal-Mart's acquisition of 123 Canadian Woolco stores.

Mark has sat on multiple boards including the Addison Business Association, the Farmers Branch Chamber of Commerce and was chairman of the board with the MetroCrest Chamber of Commerce serving Addison, Carrollton and Farmers Branch, TX.

Mark and his wife Shawn live in Plano, TX with their two daughters, Allison 14 and Emily 12 both of which attend Prestonwood Christian Academy in Plano. Mark and Shawn are also active at Prestonwood Baptist Church for the past 4 years.

Mark holds bachelor's degrees from Southeastern Oklahoma State University with degrees in Business Management and Criminal Justice.
