

William Spear is the Manager of the Office of Export Promotion and Director of the New Jersey State Trade Expansion Program (NJ STEP) both of which are part of the New Jersey Department State. He has worked for the State for more that 23 years and graduated with an AAS in Computer Science from Union County College and a BS in Business Administration from Saint Elizabeth University (then known as the College of Saint Elizabeth).